Innovative teaching tools help make hand hygiene a healthy habit

You're committed to helping keep kids ready to learn and off the absentee list by promoting hand hygiene. GOJO offers new educational tools to help students learn the importance of hand hygiene and practice it often. The materials feature CLEAN GENE™, our hand hygiene expert and friend who helps make every lesson engaging and memorable.

Germ Invaders. Online video game lets students zap germs on desktops, doorknobs and other surfaces, teaching and promoting good habits.
